

JCamp 180® All Together Now 2021 Matching Grant
Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What camps are eligible for this grant?

A: The Jewish overnight camps in North America who are affiliated with JCamp 180 and approved to participate in the All Together Now 2021 Matching Grant. This campaign is by invitation only.

Q: How much money is my camp eligible to receive in matching funds?

A: Each camp is eligible for a maximum match based on camp size and utilization as reported in the Camp Census of October 2019. Your camp's maximum match will be shared in the Grant Agreement Letter, which you will receive with your approval email. Maximum match amounts are not subject to appeal.

Q: How can matching funds be used?

A: Matching funds are unrestricted. Parent organizations must use matching funds for expenses related to their JCamp 180 overnight camp.

Q: How long does this matching grant last?

A: February 1, 2021 - December 31, 2021

Q: What is the matching ratio for this grant?

- 2:1 for most unrestricted gifts (for every $2 raised by camp HGF will match $1).
- 1:1 for camper deposits/tuition payments re-designated as charitable donations should camp not open or open for reduced sessions and camper withdraws.

Q: What counts as Tuition Converted to Donation?

A: Camper deposits/tuition payments re-designated as charitable donations should camp not open or open for reduced sessions and camper withdraws. Scholarship funds, regardless of camper designation status, are not to be counted as tuition converted, but can be counted as a standard charitable donation and receive the 2:1 match.

Q: How are Canadian dollars valued?

A: All gifts must be submitted in USD, using the conversion rate from the date the gift was made. HGF matches will be disbursed in USD.

Q: What gifts are approved for this match?

- Gifts must be unrestricted, cash or cash equivalent. Stocks, bonds, and other cash equivalents will be matched.
- Gifts must be collected between February 1 – December 31, 2021.
- Gifts of any amount will be matched up to the camp's maximum match allocation from HGF.
- Increases in regular allocations from Jewish federations or similar agencies directly in response to the All Together Now 2021 Grant or COVID-19.

Q: What is not eligible for matching?

- Gifts from anonymous donors and/or gifts reported with incomplete donor contact information.
- Restricted gifts designated for specific programs or capital expenditures are not eligible.
- In-kind contributions, discounts on services or goods, art, real estate, or other non-cash instruments.
- Regular allocation from Jewish federations or similar agencies
- Government relief funds associated with the COVID-19 pandemic.
- One Happy Camper or PJ Goes to Camp Incentive Grant funds.
- If your camp is currently in another active HGF matching grant through JCamp 180, donations may only be submitted to one HGF grant to be matched.

Q: Does my camp qualify for the bonus?

A: Camps that complete the matching grant allocation on or before October 1, 2021 and submit the final report before October 31, 2021 will receive a one-time US$10,000 bonus on a rolling basis.

Q: How do I report donations for this match?

A: Camps will submit new donations by downloading the ATN 2021 Donation Report on the HGF Grants Portal and submitting the completed version through their online account. Each donation reported must include the requested information, such as donor email and/or physical address, gift date, gift type, and amount.

Q: Will PJ Goes to Camp (PJGTC) Scholarships be eligible for matching funds?

A: HGF will not be matching funds that come from PJGTC.

Q: When can we submit gifts for matching, and when will we receive our matching funds?

A: Matching funds will be released on a rolling basis. Camps may submit when their total gifts are eligible for a minimum of US$5,000 in HGF matching funds. Matching funds will be wired within 10 working days of submission/approval. All camps must submit the Final Report from ATN 2020 and the ATN 2021 Grant Agreement before they can begin collecting Matching Grant payments.
